

Serial Entrepreneur, thought leader, and author, he is the founder of SHADOKA. As a child, he saw war and famine. As a college student, he worked as a janitor on the graveyard shift. As a corporate professional, giants like GE, Dun and Bradstreet, and Pitney Bowes recruited him. As a serial entrepreneur since the early 90s, he has been a cutting edge innovator in the fast-paced world of technology and global business.

- Top 100 Most Influential People in Technology
- Top 100 Thought Leaders

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Speaker Topics

- Future of Work with AI and Machine Learning
- How To Lead Digital Transformations
- Leadership In Uncertain World
- How Highly Resilient People Survive to Thrive
- How To Transform And Lead In The Age of Agility And Innovation
- How To Reinvent With An Entrepreneurial Mindset

What Sets Faisal Apart

is always the unique position and perspective, he has always maintained, which is grounded in a hardcore technology with deep roots in leading-edge management science and mindful entrepreneurship. His intense curiosity and always led him to explore disruptive approaches to solving complex business problems.

Highlighted Engagements

- European HR Director Summit
- Harvard Alumni Association
- Airbus Leadership University
- Ideas for Leaders, London
- SayWe/Wells Fargo
- NY Stock Exchange
- US Marine Corp
- Global China Summits
- MIT Sloan Fellows Program in Innovation and Leadership
- BOOTH School of Business - Entrepreneurial Ventures
- Yale School of Management CEO Summits

Through his ventures, he has worked with global brands such as GE, MasterCard, American Express, Northrop Grumman, PepsiCo, IBM, Home Depot, Netscape, Infosys, French Social Security Services, Gartner, Cambridge Technology Partners, JP Morgan Chase, CSC, CACI, US Federal Government, and others.

